A Celebration 80 Years in the Making!

Rosamond Gianutsos

Welcome To My Party

In gratitude for my good years and, especially, remembering those dear ones who did not make it to 80 – my mother, my husband John, my brother Sam, my dear friends Val and Stella, cousins Dimariste, Tony and Zoe.

After 80 gifting needs to reverse direction. No gifts coming in to me. Today I am gifting you this joyful celebration. Tomorrow, and on other days, I will be giving to Families for Safe Streets.

Join me. Friends from FSS are here and will share our mission.

Anna and her crew at Plaka Restaurant have made us Moussaka, Pastitsio and lemon birthday cake.

Please take lots of pictures. We have set up a photo – sharing site for this event where you can share your photos with Roz and her family.

Hana from the Queens Night Market will be bringing us Persian pistachio ice cream.

I offer my own non-nationalist version of the Pledge of Allegiance. (Use this at public events and no one but lip readers will ever question your patriotism.)

I pledge allegiance to the people of the world,
And to the environment on which they depend,
One nation, among others,
With liberty and justice for all.

The Families for Safe Streets bag is based on the sign on the back of my bike:

Do not go gentle into that good night,
Old age should burn and rave at close of day;
Rage, rage against the dying of the light.
